SERVICE OF ADMISSION
IN THE
OLD SOUTH CHURCH.

I. BY LETTER.

The names of persons admitted by letter shall be read to the congregation, and they shall be declared to be members of the church, under its vows and entitled to its privileges.

II. BY PROFESSION.

I. STATEMENT BY THE MINISTER.

A. B. (mentioning by name, if there be but one or two); The following persons (if there be more than two), having been received into the fellowship of the Old South Church, on condition of ^{his} ^{her} ^{their} publicly confessing Christ and owning our Covenant, will now present ^{himself} ^{herself} ^{themselves} for that solemn transaction (here mentioning the names when there are three or more).

2. ADDRESS TO THE PERSON OR PERSONS COMING FORWARD.

The Lord Jesus Christ witnessed a good confession at the time when He said, "to this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness to the truth." And He taketh notice of it, to the high praise and commendation of the Church in Pergamos, that they held fast His name, and had not denied His faith. We find how ready the Apostle was to make a confession of his faith, though for that hope's sake he was accused and put in chains. What hours of temptation may overtake you is not for us to say. Only the Lord doth many times so order things that, when His people have made a good confession, they should be put upon the trial, one way or another, to see whether they have been sincere in what they have done. The Lord grant that your ^{mind}_{minds} may be so girt about with truth that you may be able to stand in the evil day, and, having done all, to stand.

3. CONFESSION AND COVENANT.

Let us attend to the Confession and Covenant which are used in this Church.

(CONFESSION.)

YOU DO NOW, in the presence of God, and before His holy angels and this assembly, solemnly profess to give up ^{yourself} _{yourselves} to GOD THE FATHER as your chief good—to THE SON OF GOD as your Mediator, Head, and Lord, relying on Him as the Prophet, Priest, and King of your salvation—to THE HOLY SPIRIT of God as your Sanctifier, Guide, and Comforter, to be a temple for Him to dwell in. You profess to give up ^{yourself} _{yourselves} to this ONE GOD, who is the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, in an EVERLASTING COVENANT, TO LOVE, OBEY, AND SERVE HIM FOREVER.

Do you now make this Confession?

The sacrament of Baptism shall be here administered to any who have not been baptised, and then the minister shall say:

(COVENANT.)

HAVING made this Confession, you do furthermore promise to walk with us as a Church of Christ, in due submission to, and attendance upon, all the orders and ordinances of the Gospel; and that by the help of the Spirit, you will adorn this your profession by a holy, blameless, fruitful life and conversation.

Do you now take upon you this Covenant?

4. RIGHT HAND OF FELLOWSHIP.

Here the Church will rise.

Receive then our Christian welcome. By the help of the same Spirit on whom you rely, we promise that we will carry it toward you, as toward ^{one} _{those} brought up with us in the fellowship of the saints. We welcome you to the hopes, the labors, and the joys of this Church of Christ. It shall be our concern to watch over you, not for your halting, but for your edification. We will counsel, reprove, comfort, and exhort you, as your circumstances and our acquaintance therewith shall require.

5. LEVITICAL BENEDICTION.

NUM. VI. 24-26.

The Lord bless you and keep you ;
The Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you ;
The Lord lift up His countenance
upon you, and give you peace. AMEN.
